

Shelly U. Hopkins
Criminal Investigator II
Louisiana State Police

EDUCATION: Civilian: Hazardous Material Technician certification. FBI Hazardous Devices School. FBI Homemade Explosives Training. BATF Advanced Explosives Disposal Course.

Military: Explosive Ordnance Disposal, Phases I, II, and III (1978). Advanced Explosive Ordnance Disposal (1982). Advanced Access and Disablement (1982). Ammunition and Explosive Storage and Handling (1983) United Kingdom Improvised Explosive Device Disablement Operator (1988). US Army Sergeant's Major Academy (resident course 1993)

EXPERIENCE: Explosive Specialist / Criminal Investigator, Louisiana State Police. POST certified law enforcement officer specializing in explosive industry regulation and compliance, emergency response to improvised explosive devices, emergency response to hazardous material accidents and incidents, investigation of explosive or hazardous material incidents.

NOV 98 – PRESENT

Police Officer, City of Lake Charles, LA. POST certified criminal patrol officer for city police department. Additional duties as EOD Technician.

MAR 95 – NOV 98

Senior Bomb Technician, 45th Ordnance Detachment (EOD), Fort Polk, LA. Supervised 17 soldier Bomb Disposal unit providing bomb disposal service to Louisiana and East Texas. Provided EOD support to the United States Secret Service for the protection of the President, Vice-president, and other dignitaries. Provided EOD support to military activities on Fort Polk and elsewhere as directed. Formulated and implemented policies and procedures in accordance with federal regulations and policies for explosive safety and handling.

AUG 90 - MAR 95

Senior Bomb Technician, 72d Ordnance Detachment (EOD), Bremerhaven, Germany. Supervised 23 soldier Bomb Disposal unit providing support to northern half of west Germany. Duties as above with additional support to International and European law enforcement activities. Provided technical advice and emergency response to terrorist/counter-terrorist operations. Inspected ammunition and explosive storage facilities ensuring compliance with host nation, NATO, and US military regulations. JAN 86 – AUG 90

Supervisory Bomb Technician, 51st Ordnance Detachment (EOD), Fort Sheridan, Illinois. Supervised an EOD Team which provided EOD support in a four state area to federal and local law enforcement.

PERSONAL DATA: Date of birth: (b) (6). Total active military service 21 years, total bomb disposal experience 35 years. Security clearance held: TS-BI (SCI) (now outdated)

9422798